THE PATH TO SUCCESS: EARN MONEY AND GAIN HAPPINESS BY INSTALLING YOUR OWN MIND FOR SUCCESS WITH THESE SIMPLE DRILLS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From Preface To begin, this book was written to help you succeed, but it is somewhat different from other books. I created this book as a training book that one may read over and over again to achieve success. This training book will enable the reader to actually change their behavior, habits, temperament, and future. The typical behavioral pattern of successful people is to avoid pushing too hard as much as possible, and instead to do things rationally. I hope that the reader will use this book to install the ability to achieve success rationally into their own brain, and acquire the habits required for success. Many books on success typically describe how to achieve it using episodes and theory, with little of the book dedicated to what is of core importance. There are even books which would fill only three pages if the points therein were condensed. While these books use numerous approaches to describe cause and effect in an attempt to emphasize what is important, resulting in an abundance of specific examples, the resulting thickness of the book does not necessarily translate to an equal amount of meaningful content. This book was written using the opposite approach. Readers can typically gain a certain understanding by reading the theories presented in a given book. However, few of them will gain a deep enough understanding to put those theories into practice. That is because the important points have not really been input into the readers brains. Further, it is even more difficult to form habits from those points. The purpose of this book is for the reader to develop a temperament for success through practice. Accordingly, the important points are repeated over and...
