By Mhairi Simpson

SkyTint Books, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Detective Constable Robert Blowe has put away more criminals than most of his colleagues combined, but in a world of plea bargains and witness protection, he s starting to wonder if there s any point. His fatigue on the job gets worse when the murder of a local drug lord has Blowe on the back-foot and searching for answers to questions that go back to his childhood-to the scene of his own father s killing. The murderer is no average criminal and seemingly always one step ahead. You can t touch it, let alone cuff it, and if you see it, it s probably after you. Blowe is the only person ever to survive an encounter with the shadowy killer. That was over thirty years ago-a distant memory. Until now. Blowe isn t one to hide from a challenge, however, and with the aid of a peculiar informant and a little faith he prepares to face down his nemesis. If he doesn t stop it, no one will.
