

Lady of the Flames (Paperback)

By Barbara Monajem

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Magic is fraught with peril-but so is love. Lord Fenimore Trent s uncanny affinity for knives and other blades led to knife fights, duels, and murderous brawls. Five years ago, he faced a choice: marry Andromeda Gibbons, the woman he loved, or find a safe, peaceful use for his blades by opening a furniture shop-an unacceptable occupation for a man of noble birth. The choice made itself when Andromeda turned to another man. The furniture shop prospered, but now Fen s partner is accused of treason. In order to root out the real traitor, he faces another unpalatable choice-to resort to the violent use of his blades once again. Once upon a time, Andromeda Gibbons believed in magic. That belief faded after her mother s death and vanished completely when Lord Fenimore, the man she loved, spurned her. Five years later, Andromeda has molded herself into a perfect-and perfectly unhappy-lady. When she overhears her haughty betrothed, the Earl of Slough, plotting treason, she flees into the London night-to Fen, the one man she knows she can trust. But taking refuge with Fen...
