QUAKER TO CATHOLIC: MARY HOWITT, LOST AUTHOR OF THE 19TH CENTURY (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

St. Clair Publications, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Quaker to Catholic: Mary Howitt, Lost Author of the 19th Century, is a fascinating look inside the life of one of the most endearing figures of Nineteenth Century England. Best known for her classic children s poem, the Spider and the Fly, Mary Howitt was a close friend of such figures as Charles Dickens, William Wordsworth and Elizabeth Barrett Browning. She introduced the English version of Hans Christian Anderson s tales by translating them from Danish. She and her dedicated husband, William, helped get many well-known authors of their day into print. A great champion of women s rights and abolition of the slave trade, she became friends and an associate of Harriett Beecher Stowe, author of Uncle Tom s Cabin. Uneasy with the practices of the Quakers in relation to clothing and rights of women, she finally converted to Catholicism before her death in 1888 at the age of 89.
