Excerpt from The Civilian, Vol. 8: A Fortnightly Journal Devoted to the Interests of the Civil Service of Canada; November 26, 1915 Concerning Our System of Appointment and Promotion in the Inside Service. The Honourable the Secretary of State calls the attention of the Civil Service Commissioners to numerous complaints received by him as to the difficult nature of the examination for promotion from the third division. I must confess that our present system of recruiting the service is far from being perfect, but it is more a question of organization (or classification) than a question of examination. The imperfection of our present system of examination is -a consequence of the imperfection of our present system of organization or classification. These complaints come from two distinct. Groups of third division clerks (1) from those who have entered the third division under the operation of the new Civil Service Act, and (2) from the old civil servants who were automatically, classified in the third division upon the coming into force of this Act in September, 1908. So far as the first group is...
