

The Dots (Paperback)

By MR Richard M Dunham

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Dots is the first in a series of children s books that focuses on the basic elements of the fine arts identified as music, art, dance and theater through three silly characters Fleck, Speck and Spot. These three characters are colored with the three primary colors of red, blue and yellow. They engage in all of the artistic forms as the story progresses. There are a few ambiguous appearances from three characters representing the three secondary colors of orange, purple and green. The intent is for the child to ask questions about the three characters, to engage them in critical thinking and to help them make meaning of the relationship between primary and secondary colors. The narration is in the form of a poem presented by the character Professor Sprinkles. His narration is supported by illustrations that relate to the text and are targeted to entertain the child to ensure engagement. The story starts with a land of no color, movement or sound and progresses into a land named The City of Drop that is alive with the cultural elements of the...
