Encouraged in her course, by nature apt, She speedily had half a dozen trap; With all her better feelings turned to greed, She loved to make her slavish followers bleed; And in a single season, far and near, Was hailed the Sovereign of the Hemisphere. And what a queen she was; no regal hand Was e er more proudly potent in command; No queen, however virtuous and royal, Had ever subjects more completely loyal; And merciless and reckless in her reign, 1 She scattered death and ruin in her train, A thoroughly Swinburnian Queen of Pain. J And this is she whom folding doors concealed, Of whom had Liobed the life revealed. Twas Golden Nell, the siren of the West, Whom we but lately left in dreamy rest. Twas she who laughed to scom the preacher s word With ringing laughter, like...
