SHARE SOME TIME WITH ME: SAFE JOURNEY TRILOGY (VOLUME 2)

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 494 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 1.2in. Book 2 tells the story of Julia Meier before she travels to Australia. It is about a dream that she wants to fulfil. She knows one day she will be able to go and travel all the way to Australia. The story starts with Robby Henson who is then a successful hostel owner and meets Evelyn Meier, Julia's elder sister. She meets Joe a young, tall and beautiful Dutch backpacker who has the same dream and together they will travel through Australia and Southeast Asia. Julia Meier lives in the southwest of Holland and she works for a small supermarket near her father's and grandmother's apartment blocks. The job is boring and the wages are not high enough to save enough money for her future journey. She needs a better job so she can fulfil her dream. Her life changes when she reads an ad in the papers. The ad promises her a good job in Mallorca, Spain with lots of fun and guaranteed good income. What the job doesn't say is that it is a commission based income. The more she can sell the more she can make. She gives the company a call and goes to a seminar a week later. She hears about the work and applies for the job. She tells her father and her employer about her new job. They both don't want to see her leave. She needs to convince them so she can go and give it a try. The first two months aren't so bad. She works hard but the job is harder than was told. She still thinks she can earn enough money so she can travel within a couple of...
