Glastonbury, 1005 AD: a dying Abbot foresees the coming of the Northmen and dreadful devastation in the land. Guildford, 1036: A small boy watches a troop of horsemen advancing in the snow bringing with them something terrible to behold. Westminster, 1066: a dying king makes his choice for the throne that will change the course of history. THE DEVIL S INHERITANCE The Devil s Inheritance is the saga of the Norman Conquest of England spanning over four decades and including a cast of a dozen leading characters. At its centre are the stories of Harold Godwinsson and William of Normandy, two parallel lives whose fates are entwined from an early age and whose desire to become King of England leads their people into headlong collision in one of history s most dramatic and well-known events: the battle of Hastings, 1066. The story opens with a small boy, Harold, nearly trampled to death by a group of horsemen bringing terrible news to Godwin, the Earl of Wessex, the boy s father. A Norman-English prince, Alfred, has been...
