Results also depend upon the right diaphragm being employed, and the most effective way by which to test the weather conditions is with a VVatkin s actinometer. The height of the lens is another important detail and it is, moreover, one which requires even more attention in exteriors, which are taken in all kinds of positions. If you run to extremes, your players will either appear like giants or else like pigmies, so a happy medium should be struck. There is no standard technique, since every worker has his own ideas of what view-point is best, though most motion picture photographers prefer to focus over the actors heads. It is highly probable that you will require to follow a vehicle in motion. This is done by placing the camera on a stand in another vehicle which follows behind. An effective way of...
