Summary The rapid rise in the post-war Japanese companies, has made remarkable achievements. The reason can be summed up in a unique management strategies Japanese companies. Japanese management model recognizes differences and work into one of world history, culture, religion and values. In today's ever-changing society, it is integration with the latest management concepts in the United States to become the top-management strategy. This book is by comparing the management model in Japan and Western countries, systematic exposition of Japanese management framework and strategy, as well as some new management concept. Japanese management model emphasizes intensive production of four elements: the collective management, total quality management, improved system and timely management. Many Japanese companies through the operation of these management strategies to stand out in the international competition. I believe that Chinese enterprises will find success can learn.
