Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . So many stories have been told about how glamorous the city of Detroit once was, but none has ever been told about the lonely young widow of Indian origin, who with just three hens, a rooster, and $50, became the wealthiest chicken farmer in Detroit. This is business narrative with eye opening and life changing lessons about life, and business. Some of the invaluable lessons detailed herein include: *You can start from anywhere! Doing any type of business and succeeding at it is not a preserve of any special group of people. You can start from zero and walk all the way to the top. *Sometimes, life may take you through a low moment in order to best prepare you for a high moment. When you are hardest hit; that s when you are best prepared to effectively pursue life s hidden treasures. *Learn to always look around in readiness for grasping opportunities that life may toss along your path. Sometimes, the best of opportunities in life may only appear visible if you stay alert throughout your course. *You posses a very powerful in born power to be whatever you want to be in life. Your destiny isn t a factor of chance, but is determined by the choices that you make on each passing day.
