All joys, all pleasures, known to mortal men Have furnished topics to the poet s pen: Pleasures of Hope and Memory have been sung, And even Melancholy s harp is strung; But none as yet of all the rhyming tribe Have dared, my Theme, thy pleasures to describe. Oh base ingratitude! the scribbling crew. When writhing underneath the sharp review. All fly to thee for comfort, counsel, aid; Tis at thy footstool all their woes are laid; But if at last they make themselves a name, Or raise a sign-post in the street of Fame, They bow their judgments to a canting age, Nor dare to give thy worth a single page; Hence I, unknown, unskilful, take the field In thy behalf a maiden pen to wield; And humbly of the Muse assistance ask As one unequal to the mighty task.
