2017. Paperback. Condition: New. 209 ABOUT THE BOOK:- This book has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work was reproduced from the original artifact, and remains as true to the original work as possible. It was fun reading a book that was published in 1916. The story takes place in Arizona where a young woman has taken her first teaching assignment. She has one student that hates her, another student that is the kind of student a teacher would dream about. At the beginning of the book she is stuck out in the middle of no where at night accidentally. Towards the end of the book you think about a story that very little children are told and how the story gets the children out of trouble. ABOUT THE AUTHOR:- Grace Livingston Hill (1865-1947) is known as the pioneer of Christian romance. Grace wrote over one hundred faith inspired books during her life time. Hills first novel was written to make enough money for a vacation to Chautauqua in New York while the family was living in Florida. During and after her failed ten-year marriage to second husband, she continued to write to support her children and mother. Although many of her earlier novels were specifically intended to proselytise, Hills publishers frequently removed over references to religious themes. The Title 'A Voice in the Wilderness written/authored/edited by Grace Livingston Hill', published in the year 2017. The ISBN 9789351285625 is assigned to the Paperback version of this title. This book has total of pp. 209 (Pages). The publisher of this title is Kalpaz Publications. This Book is in English.
