The annual amount of this impost is somewhat more than 109. From an ancient paper, without date, . in. the collection of Mr. Martin, it appears that lady Adams, and the coheirs of William Allington, Esq. received 61. 3. y. 6d. and Captain Gibbons, in the right of his wife, late Mrs. Smith, 27. 4s. 4. f, both from the Collective rents. The collection was originally in two separate portions, one of which Was called Land-Mole Rents; but that, in process of time, they became jumbled together in one rental, and for very many years have been collected without any known distinction to which of the proprietors any...
