SAGE Publications Inc, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Includes CD-Rom `This book could be useful for a newly appointed or inexperienced SENCO, or in a school where inclusion is an issue. It does give realistic suggestions and guidelines on how to address the mounds of paperwork which are supposed to move us forward - Special magazine In a world where education initiatives seem to land as relentlessly as dead leaves from a grey sky, this book will help. Readers can rest assured that they are in good hands. Though it is presented as a workbook that one might dip into for useful bits, it is in fact more than that and repays more thorough reading from beginning to end, for much is covered. It will certainly be invaluable for Sencos and headteachers who want to ensure that they are up to speed with Government initiatives and directives. The book is called Making Inclusion Happen and it will certainly help you to this end, for it s an excellent resume of issues and schemes - Times Educational Supplement, Book of the Week Anne Hayward has once again shown that she is at the cutting edge of educational thinking about inclusion. She has a straightforward approach to identifying barriers to learning and ways to remove them, with transparent strategies and practical suggestions for meeting pupils needs. This book is an essential read for all staff in schools, as inclusion is recognised as a full school responsibility - Brian Parker, Headteacher, Longdendale Community College A well-written and clearly presented overview of how to develop more inclusive practice and provision - SENCO Update Do you want to implement an effective, high quality inclusion programme in your school, but feel overwhelmed by the mountain of DfES guidelines and...
