I am a mother to three beautiful boys, a wife of thirteen years to Ralph, and a dog owner to the best dog ever, Rex. I m so grateful for each and every blessing bestowed upon me by my most loving Father God who is the giver of everything in life. At times, I thought of myself as just an ordinary woman, a jack of all trades, slowly becoming a master, though many are challenging during life s journey. Today, I am thankful for the trials I have endured as they have kept me humble, but mostly because it was through enduring my toughest battles that I was led to the doorway where I d enter into a deeper relationship with God, learning to trust fully in his perfect plan. It has taught me that while people will let me down, God never will and through his endless grace, I am still standing, still learning and I continue to look forward to all the wonders he has for my life.
