Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A quiet afternoon in late spring, on a busy thoroughfare, gunfire shatters the lives of seven families. Seven children, ten years old, die; their school bus strafed by gunfire, bullets tearing thorough their young bodies. The gunmen s target-the bus driver-a drug pusher who owed them money. That s the day one war ended, another started, for a man, code name - Jupiter. His only daughter was on that school bus. He and his black ops unit were thousands of miles away from home fighting for their country. The war at home was declared, gold stolen in a daylight raid, Jupiter and his men vowing to make things right. The men paid to have the plane returning them home crash in a mountainous region, the entire squad assumed KIA. Seth Hamilton is a young police detective, married, expecting his first child. The newly made detective assigned to the Major Case Unit of the St. Louis Police Department. This detective and a man declaring he is a criminal s judge, jury, and executioner, slam head first into each other s lives. The young...
