Mocking and whispering, and abuse loud and low by turns, from all the black stones beside the road, when one living soul is toiling up the hill to get the cooling water. Mocking and whispering, that he may look back, and become a black stone like themselves. - Ruskin. Without earnestness nothing can be achieved, but marvelous results follow from the diligent devotion of ones powers, time, and money to the accomplishment of a design steadily held in view. Let a man have good faith, a serious purpose, persevering industry, and a resolve to honor truth by use, and his course shall be upward from out the shadows and the gloom into the light of a free, a noble, and a blessed life. Goethe. All great and worthy work is done under the inspiration of ideals.
