Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Vocational Education A New York State branch of the National Society for the Pro motion of Industrial Education has been organized. Its member ship is composed Of a representative body Of manufacturers, teachers, industrial workers and publicists. Three meetings have been held in the past year. Through its public meetings in different parts Of the State, its publications and bulletins, as well as through the personal efforts of its Officers, the State branch is materially forwarding a propaganda for industrial education. The Allied Printing Trades at their convention in Buffalo in August 1909, indorsed the purpose and methods Of the State Edu cation Department in relation to the establishment of industrial and trades schools. Its president, Thomas D. Fitzgerald, was active in bringing about this action as well as in opposing certain proposed State legislation In reference to industrial training which would be detrimental to the interests Of organized labor as well as to public educational welfare.
