LASER POLARIMETRY OF BIOLOGICAL TISSUES AND FLUIDS

Laser polarimetry of biological tissues and fluids

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | The topical problem of finding a set of diagnostically relevant interconnections between of the distributions of polarization states of object fields of biological tissues and fluids and the parameters of optical anisotropy of their polycrystalline networks was considered. A model of optical anisotropy is presented as a set of birefringent biological crystals. The descriptions of the main methods of polarization mapping were provided. Polarization maps of histological sections of biological tissues and...
