Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Seventy-Fifth Anniversary Series: Siam and Laos The Governor (chow Luang or Great Prince), has just completed his beautiful residence at Nan. He has been nearly ten years in building it. It is situated near the centre of the city, built of brick, the walls and outside plastered with cement with a hard finish. It is two stories high. The main part is about 40x120 feet, with two Wings 40x50 each. The lower floor is intended for business offices and store rooms. Besides the inner stairways, two commodious stairways upon the outside give ascent to the ante-chamber 40x40. Opening from this is the Hall of Audience 40x60 with a spacious portico beyond. The sleeping apartments occupy the two wings. Heavy awnings projecting over the windows are ornamental and protect from our tropical sun. Great attention is given to the finishing of the gables. As the Ox is recognized as the tutelary Spirit of Nan, it is depicted in the center with two dragons on either side. Other gables are finished with fine scroll work in teak. The roof is in native style of tiered roofs, with the customary huge gilded homing above each gable, the effect being very pleasing.
