We have enclosed and protected ourselves from the other species and the harmful aspects of natureby forming a separate society, but we still are in danger from ourselves through the activities we perform. This book intends to walk you through different scenarios of outdoor injuries that you might encounter while camping or travelling to and fro. Playing outdoors can be wearisome and without proper guidance one may not be able to perform effectively, and also get injured pretty quickly. Driving can create harmful scenarios and we will try and walk you through different techniques...
