Paperback. Condition: New. 211 pages. Secrets of the Skim is a former Merrill Lynch financial advisors true story of behind the scenes greed and dirty tricks in the US wealth management industry. Seriously funny, the book empowers investors to save thousands of dollars in fees and hidden charges. The hidden agenda of Wall Street titans is exposed as never before! The smiling faces belonging to incompetent back slapper financial advisors have for years successfully obscured the skimming operations of the old Wall Street wirehouses; until now. The hidden greed of those entrusted with our nations wealth is unearthed and explained by an industry insider. The culture is revealed through a narrative that involves a legendary college football coach, an 800 million dollar renewable fuels project and the worst financial crisis since the great depression. Sleights-of-hand routinely used to separate investors from their hard earned savings is made known for the first time. The hard evidence of their misdeeds will indict unscrupulous financial advisors and the culture they inhabit. Secrets of the Skim pulls no punches. Secrets of the Skim is a testament to the corrosive effects of post modern ethics on the financial services industry. This item ships from multiple locations.
