The one thing that Vampires and Zombies both have in common is their insatiable appetite for humans! On this particular night, they both smell the same unsuspecting camper in the distance, and the Vampire declares a race to put some fun into his hunt and give him something to post about on all of his favorite vampire social networks. The Vampire is certain he will win because everyone knows that Zombies are very, very slow and not so bright. But, will the Vampire s smug overconfidence become his source of weakness? Does the Zombie stand a chance? Find out in this modern, twisted adaptation of the classic Aesop s fable The Tortoise and the Hare.
