Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Education in Ireland: Report of Speeches in the House of Commons, on Mr. Hamilton s Motion on the Above Subject, August 21, 1848 The question of Scriptural Education in Ireland is presented under a new aspect, since the principles on which public assistance is given have left no denomination of religionists unaided in England; nor any in Ireland, except the members of the Irish branch of the United Church by law established, whose conscientious convictions do not admit of their joining the Irish National System. The nation may yet feel ashamed of this singular and exclusive injustice, so much at variance with the honest fairness of the British people. It is evident that the real state of the case is not at present generally understood. In the following pages will be found a special and revised Report of the speeches of the two Members for the University of Dublin, on the Motion of Mr. Hamilton on behalf of the Church Education Society in Ireland, brought forward in the House of Commons on the 21st of...
