Not illustrated. 1837 Excerpt: . . . spouse not deserted her: with her alone remains the mystery of His real presence: with her alone are His miracles wrought: and to her alone can be applied, Behold, I will make thy enemies to come and adore before thy feet, and they shall know that I have loved thee. During the early part of Lent, Geraldine had been occupied in gleaning from works lent her by the Rev. Dr. Wharton, and the Abate Zaccaria, all that could throw light and interest on the approaching solemn commemorations, and she was therefore now still better enabled to understand and appreciate those attendant ceremonies, which to the superficial observers must be tedious, and to the prejudiced Protestant, mere empty form and idle show. On the eve of the fifth Sunday in Lent, which is the fortnight before Easter, commenced the commemorative history, or mystical representation of our blessed Redeemers sufferings. The ornaments in all the Churches were either covered or removed, and the crosses veiled with the mournful and penitential covering of violet. In early times the catechumens who had been found worthy, were baptized on the eve of Easter, The author is principally indebted for the following descriptions to the Right Reverend Dr. Englands explanations of the ceremonies of the holy week. and admitted, on the glorious clay of the resurrection, to the adorable sacrament of the risen body, soul and divinity of Christ. Those also who had been excluded from the blessings of the altar,...
