Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Crown of Wild Olive, And, the Queen of the Air John Ruskin John Ruskin was born in London, February 8, 1819. His parents were educated, well-to-do Scotch people. The father, a successful business man, and a member of a prosperous firm of wine merchants (Ruskin, Telford, and Domecq), was, nevertheless, a lover of good books and pictures, and gave his son ample opportunity for the cultivation and formation of literary style and artistic taste. His mother, an orthodox Scotch woman, looked carefully after the boy's religious training. In his last years Ruskin gave, in Prterita, a detailed and unreserved account of the events of his childhood. It is done so exquisitely that one can do no better than to paraphrase some parts of his story. He tells (p. 16) how, at five or six years of age, he could pass his days contentedly in tracing the squares and comparing the colors in his carpet, examining the knots in the wood of the floor, or counting the bricks in the opposite houses.
