Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Birds Nests and Eggs: With Directions for Bird-Stuffing, With Instructions as to Their Management With returning spring all nature revives; the birds which remain with us all the winter seem restored to life by the first fine day; those which departed on their journey to a warmer climate in the autumn return from their migration; and once more the woods and fields re-echo with their song. The rook and the crow give the first intimation that the pairing season is at hand. Their cawing is incessant, as is also the industry with which twigs and branches are conveyed to their intended dwelling-place in the tree-tops. A little later, and the smaller birds make the grove sound musical, as their several songs of love are poured forth. From this time the male becomes the slave of the female. He sings to charm her; he labours incessantly to aid her; he gathers materials for the nest; he assists her in building, and superintends the workmanship; and marvellous it is to see them, without other instruments than beak and claws, build and weave or sew the nest, according to their peculiar habits. Observe the materials which they employ with so much effect, and with a discernment which indicates something approaching to intelligence. Look how skilfully one weaves the catkins of the willow, the poplar, and thistle down, surrounding it by stronger fibres, and the address with which it is suspended at the extremity of some slender pendulous branch, beyond the reach of anything that only runs or creeps. Another, having made its calculations, fixes its nest so near to the surface of the water, that as the wind sweeps through the four...
