

Gay Lesbian History for Kids: The Century-Long Struggle for LGBT Rights with 21 Activities (For Kids series)

By Jerome Pohlen

Chicago Review Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 192 pages. Part of the popular For Kids series, this book puts the historic struggle for LGBT equality into perspective. Given today's news, it would be easy to get the impression that the campaign for LGBT equality is a recent development, but it is only the final act in a struggle that started more than a century ago. This timely resource helps put recent events into context for kids ages nine and up. After a brief history up to 1900, each chapter discusses an era in the struggle for LGBT civil rights from the 1920s to today. The history is told through personal stories and firsthand accounts of the movements' key events like the 1950s Lavender Scare, the Stonewall Inn uprising, and the AIDS crisis. Readers will learn about civil rights mavericks, like Dr. Magnus Hirschfeld, founder of the first gay rights organization; Phyllis Lyon and Del Martin, who turned the Daughters of Bilitis from a lesbian social club into a powerhouse for LGBT freedom; and Harvey Milk, the first out candidate to win a seat on the San Francisco Board of Supervisors. Also chronicled are the historic contributions of famous LGBT individuals, and...

Extensive information! It's this type of excellent study. I have read and I am sure that I will go through yet again once more down the road. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
