Excerpt: . . . ALPHA, WASHINGTON-LEE UNIVERSITY. WE have had the usual annual election with the following results: McClintock, I; Barrow, II, and Grabill, III. With the affairs of the chapter in such capable hands we all feel that K. A. will undoubtedly prosper the coming year. Graduation takes from our midst two brothers, Howard P. Macfarlane and Adrian Williamson, who have at all times been willing and ready, and the result of their efforts stands as the proof Brother Macfarlane came to us after getting the A. B. skin from Princeton, and has been the prominent lawyer serving as the Junior Law Class President, and this year has been in great demand in drawing up papers of legal nature for student body affairs. He served as (I) the past year, and in that capacity showed great generalship, sound and broad-minded thinking and good ideas. He is a member of Phi Delta Phi and the White Friars. Mac hangs out his shingle in Tampa, Fla. Brother McClintock, newly elected (I), is not new at the job, but is a third-year man, has served as (II) and other offices. Simp is an exceptionally clever man, can say something on any subject, reads eighteen newspapers a day, is no mean musician, handling the violin, piano, mandolin and flute with equal ease, is leader of our house orchestra, is a member of the White Friars, and has been said to have great influence in Y. M. C. A. work. Robert is...
