That is where two lovers meet in this humorous and sexy romance novel. Isabella, a librarian in her early thirties, goes with her friends to a performance where an actual murder takes place. She falls in love with the handsome investigating detective, who bears a striking resemblance to Don Draper in Mad Men, and gets herself mixed up with some dangerous people when she goes undercover-in spite of his warnings-to help him solve the crime. This book is not just chick lit : written by a man and a woman, it appeals to both sexes. For readers 18 years old and above.
