The subjects addressed by the Touched series of books, is very controversial. The book Short Circuit is not controversial, because no one ever expected the subject of mental illness to be addressed by someone who was. Therefore, a subject buried in mystery, has uncomfortably popped to the surface of the mental health profession. They are accused of the eternal proliferation, of maintaining their job security. that ends now. Another example, Touched. . . The Road to Maturity. Those who are entrenched in political, social, and religious dogma, never expecting young people to be better equipped to deal with life making decisions, than they are. The question is, where are these books coming from, and how can they be stopped from being published, before the books are in the hands of those very qualified to apply what they learn. As with most great works, the creation of their incredible power, had to start somewhere. That would be the author. Almighty God, who has used holy men to write his words for thousands of years. compare the life experience of their childhood,...
