Broadway Books (A Division of Bantam Doubleday Dell Publishing Group Inc), United States, 1998. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A shockingly candid, hilarious account of how two young producers broke into the Hollywood studio system--and survived the shark-eat-shark insanity to become Hollywood players.Thousands of people dream about making it big in Hollywood, but almost all of them end up being eaten alive. When aspiring producer Jane Hamsher and her madman partner Don Murphy set up shop in Jane s dining room after graduating from film school, they were too naive to know that people like themselves--far removed from the Porsche-driving studio elite--should never succeed in the movie business.Then Jane and Don stumbled upon a script for a film written by a geeky filmmaker-wannabe named Quentin Tarantino; it was called Natural Born Killers, and they liked it so much they optioned it for the bargain price of $10,000. But, suddenly, after Reservoir Dogs turned Tarantino into an overnight sensation, he and every major studio in town decided they wanted control of the script, pitting Jane and Don up against some of the meanest, toughest players in Hollywood.This was only the beginning of their two-year roller-coaster ride through the ruthless world of studio pitbulls, idiotic film crew leeches, and unprecedented butt-kissing and back-stabbing. When Oliver Stone became hot to direct NBK, Jane and Don could hardly believe their luck --but before they knew it, they found themselves enrolled in the Oliver Stone School of Filmmaking, a maddening and mind-altering experience, even before the drugs, money, and fame. Throw Robert Downey Jr, Woody Harrelson, Juliette Lewis, and a whole cast of outrageous characters into the picture and you ve got not only the makings of a hit movie but a Hollywoodjoyride unlike any other.From...
