Excerpt: . . . 11 unique perspective on it, and if you would respond in writing, I would appreciate it. Let me take up the question of our ability to afford security from violent crime. Taking a look at some of the offenses, Federal of-fenses which are punishable by the death penalty - assassination of the President, espionage, treason, killing of a Federal witness to prevent testimony at a trial, drug kingpins, hijacking of airplanes resulting in death - in your judgment, should the death penalty be retained on those offenses and generally where the Congress has established a death penalty Mr. M. In appropriate cases, yes. UELLER Senator S. And while it is not Federal jurisdiction, what PECTER is your response to the repeated public comments now by State offi-cials that the death penalty needs to be abandoned because it is too expensive to carry it out What do you think about that UELLER Mr. M....
