This collaborative work unveils the histories of four oddly mysterious women who see one another once a month at their book club meetings. By concealing their hidden truths, they choose to compartmentalize the catastrophic events of the past that shape who they are. Together, they realize they have the audacity to survive; now they must reveal their pasts to save others from going through what they did. The Cover Saga unveils four women s triumphs over suicide, bullying, depression, dating violence, and a disastrous cycle of marital infidelity.
