Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . How Come You Are Single? Learn What You Are Doing to Sabotage Your Relationships A bonus chapter, Where to Go from Here, is a testimony from a formerly single woman, who found her love through patience and the determination to become a better person. This book, How Come You Are Single: Learn What You Are Doing to Sabotage your Relationships, is a manifesto on dating and relationships. Its goal is to help you find the love of your life by doing away with your misconceptions about dating. There are bad habits that people do, and that is what s keeping them from the bliss of relationships. The contents of this book are arranged as a process. The first chapter, The Singlehood Myths, aims to deconstruct your misnomers about the single life. It contains explanations as to why singlehood is as cool as the relationship boat. In this chapter you will see why being single should be related to your choice to improve yourself, and why online dating should NOT end your single status. -The second chapter, Why Are You Still Single, is a list of the probable reasons why love seems to be elusive to you. It also expounds on the experiences of people, whom you should or shouldn t emulate. Some of these reasons include obsessing on marriage, letting your parents dictate your life, being too easy, and setting your standards too high. Cool Dating Ideas, the third chapter, is your ticket to the creative side of dating and relationships. These are the perfect companion to the second chapter, and would provide a number of tips that steer clear of pretensions and customary dating ideas. This chapter will also help...
