Excerpt from Christian Counsel the Light and Safeguard of Nations: A Letter to the Right Hon. George Canning, on the Present Crisis of the Country That the secession of your former associates must have already occasioned you much painful perplexity, I can readily imagine but i am more desirous of seemg you avail yourself of the real advantages of your situation , than of dwelling on the difficulties to which you appear to be exposed. To my apprehension your hindrances will consist more in erring and abortive attempts to secure friends, rthan in any continued opposition offered by your avowed adversaries. Your triumph and your tranquility will be won by simply following up, the principle to which you trace your own exaltation. You are not Called upon to negotiate, but to choose. It is to the adoption of a totally different course that I refer fiuch of the errors in government which have prevailed since. The death oer. Pitt. A rightly-constituted administration is a Compacted body: made up of ze?icient and agreeing members, working willingly under an acknowledged and informing head so as to com bine unity of purpose with facility and freedom of. Orderly. Execution. But the eadmlmstrations svhichr Zhave 3 successively swayed this; countryduring. The last twenty years; have been rather joint-stock bompanies for the cons ervation of power, and the idispensation of patronage, than such a Government as I have scripturallyrsketched the frame, of Happy will it be for this empire, if in theallocation of important offices suddenly and sinfully vacated, you shall be led to fill them up - not by yielding to the accustomed course - by conceding to one man s antipathies orzto another s predilections, by crouching to the...
