Reviews

An incredibly great book with perfect and lucid answers. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. You will not sense monotony at whenever you want of the time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you question me).

Bibliogov, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this interview MAJ Boyd, an Army nurse, discusses his 2004-2005 deployment to Baghdad, Iraq with the 772nd Forward Surgical Team (FST). This was an unexpected deployment for MAJ Boyd as he had just arrived in Germany and didn't know he was already on the list to be in the professional officer filler system (PROFIS) for the hospital he was assigned to. MAJ Boyd discusses the struggles he had getting his mind set for the deployment but that once he got there and got in the game he was fully prepared and eager to serve our Soldiers. MAJ Boyd has 24 years of service in the Army both active and Reserve all involved with the Army Medical Department in some way. MAJ Boyd states that the best training he received was the Army Trauma Training Center (ATTC) training done at Ryder Hospital in Miami, Florida prior to his deployment. MAJ Boyd concludes his interview reflecting on his time in Iraq as having been critical to his growth as a leader and a clinician and states that all officers and Soldiers need to deploy in order to stay relevant and current in today's conflicts.
