Temple Spire Books, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The issue of women and the priesthood has been a matter of concern for many Latter-day Saints for years. This book changes the entire discussion. In 2012, the never-before-published Nauvoo Relief Society Minute Book was finally made available online. Investigation of this manuscript reveals what almost amount to lost teachings of Joseph Smith, including the following: Joseph Smith said he was going to make of this [Relief] Society a kingdom of priests. Joseph spoke of delivering the keys to both the leaders of the Church and to the leaders of Relief Society. Joseph said the keys of the kingdom were about to be given to sisters as well as to the Elders. Joseph then said I now turn the key to you in the name of God. This book thoroughly investigates claims that the LDS priesthood is to be restricted to men-and finds no support for such claims. This is a book for both men and women who want to learn what Joseph taught on this issue-and who want to consider possible futures. From the Preface: In this book, I claim that there is no scriptural reason not to extend priesthood ordination to all worthy Latter-day Saint women. Statements by well-intended Church members to the effect that the Lord has restricted priesthood ordination to men are expressions of personal opinion, being supported neither by scripture nor explicit modern revelation. Arguments based on the idea that Jesus only ordained men are naive regarding the way that the Lord seems to work with human cultures and social change. In modern times, it seems that Joseph Smith himself, during the last year and a half of his life, bestowed...
