Magnificent farms, whose normal values were about $50 per acre, suddenly jumped to about that much per front foot after being divided into lots. Men bought and sold with a recklessness never before known--acted as though Kansas City was destined in the near future to become the metropolis of the world. But the inevitable reaction set in. The pendulum begun to swing in the opposite direction. There was a pause in the hurried turmoil. Men commenced taking their bearings, and they discovered that there were breakers just ahead, and they were siezed with a sudden desire to unload. A veritable panic set in. and it also became contagions. Property depreciated in value as rapidly as it had appreciated, and the result of this greatest of all booms was utter paralysis in the real estate business, from which the city is still suffering. A few men made money in the operation, but the great majority were injuriously affected by it. Now, Mr. President, as a breeder of thorough-bred Poland-China hogs, and, being deeply interested in everything that pertains to the welfare and prosperity connected with this business, you will pardon me for sounding a note of warning to my fellow-breeders, to steer clear of the shoals on which have been wrecked the industries referred tc. That there is an incipient boom being started in the prices of Poland Chinas--to prove which it is only necessary to refer you to the prices which have...
