Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Col. Ingersoll's Reply to His Critics in the N. Y. Evening Telegram. If he had added to that, You must not persecute in my name. The religion I teach is the Religion of Love - not the religion of force and hatred. You must not imprison your fellow-men. You must not stretch them upon racks, or crush their bones in iron boots. You must not lay them alive. You must not cut off their eyelids, nor pour melted lead into their ears. You must treat all with absolute kindness. If you cannot convert your neighbor by example, persuasion, argument, that is the end. You must never resort to force; and, whether he believes as you do or not, treat him always with kindness, his followers would not have murdered their fellows in his name. If Christ was in fact God, he knew the persecutions that would be carried on in his name he knew the millions that would suffer death through torture and yet he died without saying one word to prevent what he must have known, if he were God, would happen. All that Christianity has added to morality is worthless and useless. Not only so, it has been hurtful. Take Christianity from morality and the use ful is left, but take morality from Christianity and the useless remains.
