Mirrorball Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 276 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.8in. Contemporary mystery with a touch of romance . . . A gripping tale filled with humanity and humor. Dont miss this one! Found Between The Covers When twenty-nine-year-old Flora Lively loses both of her parents and inherits the family business, Shakers Removals, she tries hard to make a success of her fathers dream - even at the expense of her own dreams. Burdened with Marshall, her fathers handpicked American manager, Flora finds solace in her friendship with Joy, an elderly client she helped move into the Maples, the local retirement community. When strange and dangerous things begin to happen at the Maples, Flora finds herself conducting a private murder investigation. Will Flora discover whos behind the series of incidents at the Maples Will her newly inherited business be able to fight off their biggest rival And just who is that mysterious stranger Flora keeps bumping into Described as Bridget Jones meets Midsomer Murders, Murder at the Maples is a new genre-busting romance-mystery from the author of Amazon bestseller Cant Live Without. An excellent start to a new cozy mystery series and a brand new amateur sleuth for readers to fall in love with. Socrates Book Reviews There is much more to the story than a mystery to solve. The mystery is underpinned by important and thoughtful considerations of the nature of love, loss, grief and old age - this serious undercurrent adds depth to the book, likely to make the reader think about it for long after theyve solved the mystery and read the final page. Debbie Young The characters are lovely, and the mystery is top notch. Murder at the Maples is a wonderful start to a cozy series. Brooke Blogs A quirky and well developed main character, strange and interesting secondary...
