Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Mary Reed: Missionary to the Lepers Theo; School Two eminent specialists, who both confirmed the decision Of the American physician. During her brief stay in England, She was thrown into contact with a young countrywoman of her own, who was, moreover, as Miss Reed had been, a public school-teacher (from New England) and an earnest Christian. TO her were permitted some days of Close intercourse with this devoted su? erer which must have been inspiring as an experience, and must remain precious as a memory. I have the advantage of quoting from an account of these days, written by this sympathizing companion. She says: I wondered instinctively at the ivory pallor Of that sweet face, and at the cruel spot that disfigured it, SO different from anything I had ever seen. I wondered, too, as the days went by, why the forefinger, always covered with a white cot, refused to yield to healing remedies. Miss Reed s suggestion that she should continue her journey towards Brindisi, in the company of the small party of whom her friend was one, was readily acceded to, although they doubted her ability to travel with the rapidity of the average American tourist.
