Once she becomes a teen, her crush is glossed over by dreams of her artistic capabilities which include glitter, stock paper, markers, and glue. She makes the perfect secret admirer letter, slips it under his bedroom door for he happens to be the brother of her best friend. He finds the letter on the floor by the door, reads all what she wrote about them meeting--not now--for the timing isn't right. It's all about destiny. Years later, Eliette feels foolish for writing that letter, it was a teen crush, they were both young. Surely, he has moved on and so has she, she has a new love interest in her life. A chance meeting in the dark, a secret kiss, and two hearts that can't let go from that kiss. Will she be with Ray? Or is her new love everything that she really needs? A crush. A love. A familiar stranger. Only timing, circumstance, and destiny will tell.
