FBC LTD, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Cumorah s Southern Cross, Vol. 6: May, 1932 Can it be any wonder then that mem bers of this Church, who believe that they have new ideas which should prove of as much benefit to others as to that? selves, wish everyone to know about these things? Nor is it strange that they should be subjected to at least Some per sention. Throughout all the ages men have died for ideas and ideals. The great teachers of the better ways of living and the missionaries who have gone about advocating these beliefs have all been willing to suffer and even become mar tyrs to the cause they have represented. These are all demonstrations of the fundamental trait that man, when he has something good, simply will not be sup pressed.
