Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Time of Ravens and Other Metamorphic Tales is the first collection of poetic works by visionary sci-fi poet and author David F. Marsee who has assembled for us a haunting, fantastical and yet cohesive glimpse from the past into the future as artistically and uniquely presented in four categories: Bluebirds, Crows, Nightingales and Ravens. Through each flight of poetically framed stories, both familiar and controversial subjects such as family values, gun violence, social justice and climate change are addressed, with each migratory flight of the author's evolving story-line conveying another captivating measure of his both stark and multi-dimensional vision, leading us finally to a place where each reader can reach his, her or co's own conclusions as to what could be the final fate of humankind and the Earth.
