Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from What's the Fare to Argyleville? Dear Guy: Every time I begin to write I feel plumb tired and out of peptimism, so I waited until tonight before answering your Epistle No. 2023 or thereabouts. It was so good I didn't need my dinner that day but ate it just the same. I am laboring under the opinion that the Torrid Zone has been extended to up here by the Parcels Post Department - it is so sizzlingly hot the grease melts from me like lava from a volcano's side. I could eat a whole iceberg if any was for sale. I camped near the Brown ice house one evening but had to evacuate the next morning on account of the flood caused by my presence. So betimes I am using patent hair restorers for their cooling effect. My flivver ran away the other day. I don't know what got into its head, but seems like it was out for a spree by itself. I couldn't stop it; if I tried to, it would balk and back up, and if I put on the brakes it would give the shivers, kick up its heels and then head for San Francisco at lightning speed. A kind, sympathetic telephone pole saved the day. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
