DOD uses SI pay programs to compensate and incentivize servicemembers for occupations that are dangerous, less desirable, or require special skills. Senate Report 114-49 included a provision for GAO to review the effectiveness of DOD s SI pay programs. This report assesses (1) trends in DOD obligations for SI pay programs for fiscal years 2005 through 2015 and the extent to which DOD reports such obligations department-wide; and (2) the extent to which the military services applied key principles of effective human capital management in the design of SI pay programs for selected high-skill occupations for fiscal years 2010 through 2015. GAO analyzed DOD SI pay obligations for fiscal years 2005 through 2015; reviewed a nongeneralizable sample of SI pay programs for nuclear propulsion, aviation, and cybersecurity occupations, chosen based on their pay programs attributes; compared DOD and service policies and documents with key principles of effective human capital management; and interviewed DOD officials.
