In the early 1930's, Russ Columbo, a dashing singer who was called " The Vocal Valentino " , was a rival to Bing Crosby in a widely-publicised " Battle of the Baritones " . But for Russ, his great looks, personal charm, nad beautiful voice, also had a haunted side . Russ was shot and killed, after a series of mysterious circumstances, by a stray bullet . Just 2 days before he had attended the premiere of the movie that was to make him a star . a Hollywood sneak preview of " Broadway through a Keyhole " . that gave him his first leading role . This fascinating book is a look at early Hollywood , through a...
